Occupying a convenient location within the historic village of Whithorn, this is a well presented, spacious, mid terraced townhouse, boasting generous accommodation over three floors.

The property, which is in excellent condition throughout, currently benefits from oil fired central heating and fully installed uPVC D.G. Of traditional construction under a slate roof with flat roof extension to the rear, this property would be an ideal family home.

Providing generous accommodation over three floors, we have an open plan kitchen/ dining area with a spacious utility room allowing access to a spacious garden area to the rear. Upper levels comprising of four bedrooms (one of which is ensuite) with the potential of a fifth as well as a large sized bathroom . The top level provides easy access to a large attic room providing ample storage space.

There is a large enclosed area of maintained garden ground to the rear which has been fully landscaped providing access to a detached garage. Off road parking can be found to the rear of the property also.

Whithorn has long been a very popular retreat on Scotland's Southwest coastline, attracting many visitors and with access to a full range of outdoor pursuits including walking, fishing and excellent golf courses. Local amenities include primary school, church, general and specialist stores, library, post office, hotel, chemists and general practice healthcare.

The surrounding area has also been noted for its sites of historical interest. The pretty coastal villages of the Isle of Whithorn and Garlieston are within easy reach and where there are further facilities for boating and sea fishing. The well known Book Town of Wigtown is only 8 miles distant and a wider range of facilities, including larger supermarkets and secondary schools, can be found in the market town of Newton Stewart (17 miles) and Stranraer (30 miles).

Conditions of Sale We have attempted to make our sales details as accurate as possible from the information we have about this property. If there is any point which is of particular importance please contact our office and we will endeavour to check the information.
