

Gertrude Cottage, Cunningham Terrace

Newton Stewart, DG8 6DY

Offers Over £260,000

Cunninghame Terrace is situated within the popular market town of Newton Stewart in Dumfries and Galloway. The property occupies an established residential setting while remaining within convenient reach of the town centre and its range of everyday facilities. Newton Stewart provides a good selection of independent shops, supermarkets, cafés and other local services, together with primary and secondary schooling, healthcare facilities and leisure amenities. The town sits on the banks of the River Cree and acts as one of the principal centres for the surrounding Wigtownshire and Galloway area. The surrounding countryside offers extensive opportunities for walking, cycling and other outdoor activities, with the Galloway Hills and Galloway Forest Park readily accessible from the town. Newton Stewart also benefits from its position close to the A75, providing road connections east towards Dumfries and west towards Stranraer, while the surrounding towns and villages of Wigtown, Creetown, Gatehouse of Fleet and Kirkcudbright are all accessible throughout the wider region. The combination of a convenient town location and easy access to the surrounding countryside makes Newton Stewart a well-established residential base within this part of Dumfries and Galloway.

- Substantial traditional detached house
- Generous and well-established garden grounds
- Four bedrooms including ground-floor bedroom/study
- Principal bedroom with en-suite shower room
- Spacious lounge with traditional fireplace
- Conservatory overlooking the garden
- Ground-floor bathroom
- Split upper-floor accommodation accessed by two separate staircases
- Detached garage & generous driveway
- Convenient location within Newton Stewart

A substantial traditional detached house occupying a particularly generous and well-established plot within Cunninghame Terrace, Newton Stewart. The property provides approximately 1,663 sq.ft. of accommodation over two levels and offers a versatile layout incorporating four bedrooms, multiple reception spaces and extensive garden ground. The accommodation is unusual in that the upper floor is divided into two separate sections, each reached by its own staircase. This creates a flexible arrangement which could work particularly well for families requiring a degree of separation between bedrooms, home-working space or guest accommodation.

On the ground floor, the main entrance opens into the hallway with access to a comfortable lounge featuring a traditional fireplace with stove. A separate dining room provides ample space for a dining table and connects conveniently with the kitchen.

The kitchen is fitted with an extensive range of units and work surfaces and is supplemented by a separate utility room, providing additional storage, workspace and laundry facilities. A conservatory extends from the rear of the property and provides an additional sitting area with direct access to the garden.

Also on the ground floor is a bedroom/study, providing useful flexibility depending upon the purchaser's requirements, together with a bathroom.

The upper-floor accommodation comprises three further bedrooms. The principal bedroom is a particularly generous double room with elevated views towards Galloway hills & beyond and its own en-suite shower room. Two additional bedrooms occupy the other section of the upper floor, with the layout providing a good amount of bedroom and storage accommodation overall.

Externally, the size of the plot is a significant feature of the property. The grounds extend around the house and incorporate substantial lawned areas, mature trees, shrubs, established borders and more natural sections of garden. There are paved and gravelled areas immediately around the house, together with a greenhouse and garden storage.

A private gravel driveway provides off-road parking and leads to a detached garage positioned to the side of the property. The extent of the grounds, combined with the traditional character and generous internal accommodation, makes this a notably substantial property for its location.

Hallway

A spacious entrance hallway with carpeted flooring and a useful built-in storage cupboard. A staircase rises from the hallway to one section of the split first-floor accommodation, while glazed timber doors provide access to the adjoining reception rooms and allow additional natural light into the hall.
